

XM RADIO is just another of many choices of news and information outlets that i as a consumer are entitled to and should continue to receive regardless of any local or national tv or radio station's business affiliation....

There is nothing in the law of the united states of america that states we americans must listen to certain outlets for our enjoyment or information, nor does it indicate that any such media outlet be given preferential treatment in helping it's business succeed because of new and innovative and legal technology that opens the door to new companies...

If you take away our right to receive news and weather info from satellite radio, you might as well tell us we have to listen to some certain station for every bit of personal information or entertainment and that my friends would be a dictatorship, nothing short...

It's time the U.S. Government started focusing on real issues that affect everyday people and all current businesses pushing this ridiculous subject to face up to real competition.
